PUBLIC NOTICES

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL.

New Delhi, the 27th February 1954.

SUBJECT:—Import licensing policy for January-June, 1954 for the newcomers—Enamelled iron bath tubs—S. No. 269(b)-IV

No. 21-ITC(PN)/54.—Attention of importers is invited to Serial No. 32 in the list of items appended to this office Public Notice No. 159-ITC(PN)/53, dated the 30th December 1953 appearing as Annexure 'F' to Section I of the Red Book for the current licensing period.

2. It is notified for information that dealers in enamelled ironware, other than enamelled iron bath tubs, will also be treated as being in an allied trade for purposes of applying as a newcomer for licences for enamelled iron bath tubs. The remarks against S. No. 269(b) of Part IV appearing on page 38 of the Red Book for the current period will be deemed to have been amended accordingly.

3. In view of this clarification applications from newcomers for licences for enamelled iron bath tubs, will be accepted for consideration upto and including 15th March 1954.

SUBJECT:—Import policy for betelnuts—Serial No. 30, Part IV—January-June 1954

No. 22-ITC(PN)/54.—In the Red Book for the current licensing period it was stated that betelnuts would be licensed to Established importers on a 60 per cent. quota. No provision was made for newcomers.

2. It has now been decided to issue licences for this item on a liberal basis to established importers as well as newcomers.

3. Established importers who have already applied for or obtained import licences for the current period may apply for additional licences to the licensing authorities at the ports concerned. Established importers who have not yet made their applications may apply for any reasonable value, but they should submit along with their application either the exchange control copy of the licence issued for July-December 1953 or the quota certificate.

4. Newcomers who have been dealing in the internal trade of betelnuts in any previous year may also apply. Applications from newcomers need only be supported by a Bank or Chartered Accountant's Certificate, giving the value of the applicants' dealings in this commodity in any particular year.

5. There will be no last date for these applications which should be submitted on the usual forms accompanied by treasury receipts etc. Licences will be issued for reasonable values as and when applications are received.

K. B. LALL, Joint Secy.
